Veterans Affairs premieres new local health care magazine

OMAHA, Neb. — The Department of Veterans Affairs Nebraska-Western Iowa Health Care System published the first edition of a new magazine July 1.

The magazine—the link—includes news, features, and information about services and benefits available through the VA health care system. It also highlights employee and Veteran news as well as events occurring at the health care system’s eight facilities throughout Nebraska and western Iowa.

The publication is available at <http://www.nebraska.va.gov>. People can sign up at the website to automatically receive the link to the magazine or other public affairs products via email.

A link to the magazine will also be published at the VA NWIHCS social networking sites at <http://twitter.com/VANWIHCS> or <http://www.facebook.com/NebraskalowaVA>.

Hard copies of the publication are available at each of the health care system facilities.

The VA Nebraska-Western Iowa Health Care System proudly serves more than 167,660 veterans in Nebraska, western Iowa and portions of Kansas and Missouri. Omaha’s medical center is an inpatient facility and also a large outpatient clinic for primary and specialty care. The Community Living Center is in Grand Island. There are community-based outpatient clinics in Lincoln, Grand Island, North Platte, Holdrege, Norfolk, Bellevue and Shenandoah, Iowa, and a contracted outreach clinic in O’Neill, Neb.
