Stand Down to Give Homeless Veterans VA Assistance

OMAHA, Neb. — Homeless Veterans can come in from the cold to get assistance and a hot meal at a “Stand Down” at the Grace University Field House, 820 Pine Street, Nov. 22 from 9 a.m. to noon.

The U.S. Department of Veterans Affairs Nebraska-Western Iowa Health Care System (NWIHCS) will provide free services for homeless Veterans including health screening, eye exams, drug and alcohol counseling, mental health services and foot care. In addition, the Veterans can also receive limited free clothing and a hot meal.

Veterans must be eligible for VA health care benefits. Veterans are encouraged to enroll for VA health care benefits before the event at the Omaha VA Medical Center, 4101 Woolworth Ave. However, Veterans who are not enrolled for VA health care benefits can register at the Stand Down and receive information about the available services.

In addition to the VA, representatives from many agencies community and government agencies will be present to assist Veterans including county Veteran service offices, the Omaha Vet Center, Nebraska Workforce Development, the Salvation Army and the Lions Club. Veterans can also meet with representatives from the VA Regional Office to discuss disability benefits that may be available to them.

Stand Down is a military term that means service members are removed from the combat field to receive rest and rehabilitation. It is one of many opportunities for the VA to reach out and connect with homeless Veterans to provide them much-needed rest and rehabilitation.

“Our Veterans honorably served America. This is our opportunity to serve them,” said Linda Twomey, VA NWIHCS Mental Health Specialty Programs Coordinator. “The Stand Down is one of the VA’s many programs to reach out and serve homeless Veterans in our communities.”
